The Impresario - W.A. Mozart
short comic opera

THE IMPRESARIO (Der Schauspieldirektor) - W.A. MOZART

Much ado in the theatre! Those who think that only nowadays theatres have difficulties, are mistaken... With lots of humour Mozart draws a pointed picture of all the troubles that beset the opera world: shortage of money, intrigues, fickle prima-donna's....

Mozart wrote 'The Impresario' ('Der Schauspieldirektor') in 1786 for a festive banquet at Schloss Schonbrunn, Vienna. The Amsterdam Marionette Theatre made a special adaptation of this play, in which Mozart himself pulls the strings.

A performance for both adults and children (min. 8 yrs.).

Approx. 1 ½ hours (interval included).

Language No Problem:

Performances are presented in Dutch; we provide a programme of the performance in English.

Because of the visual and musical character of the performance, the language is no great barrier.
